Dedication
To
Mrs. Marie Lower

We the class of 1972 feel that during our years here at Redbank we have at many times been misunderstood and often prejudged. From seventh grade on the remarks made about our class have been less than complimentary. Many teachers disliked us without reason, although we willingly admit many disliked us with reason. It is true we have been a devilish class, full of tricks and pranks and mischievous acts. Many have said that we placed fun above learning. We feel, that although we do not have the competitive spirit or the high grades of classes before us, we have learned a great deal here. In the process of learning we have had many good times which brought us closer together as a class, so close, in fact, that we consider ourselves a FAMILY.

There is one teacher here at Redbank who consistently overlooked our faults, forgave us for the many times we humiliated her, always attempted to teach us just a little more and above all never disliked us or said a word against us as a class. We have not forgotten the dedication and kindness she has shown us. Therefore we would like to make her a part of us, and so it is with our deepest respect and great fondness, that we, the FAMILY OF 1972 dedicate our yearbook, the Vallis, to—

Mrs. Marie Lower

Mrs. Lloyd C. Lower was born in Distant, PA. After attending New Bethlehem High School, she continued her education at Chatam College in Pittsburgh where she received a B.A. degree. Mrs. Lower occupies her time by swimming, playing golf, horseback riding, playing bridge and traveling.

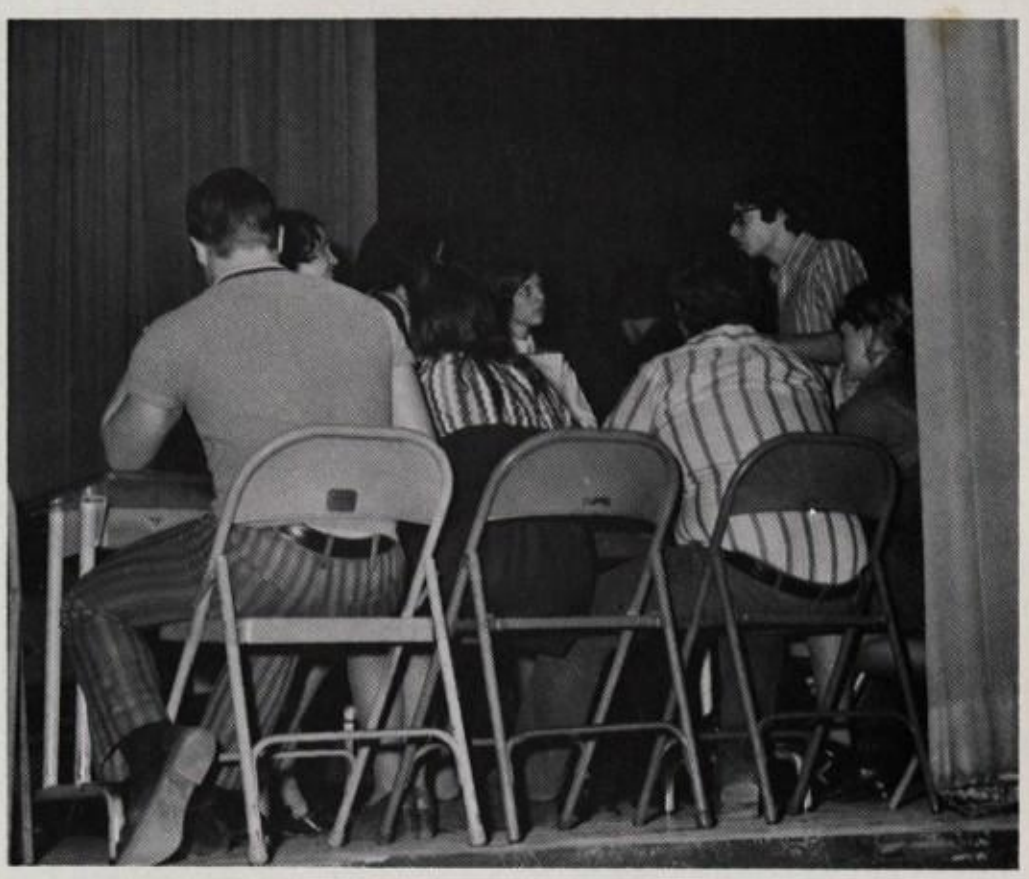
Senior Court Trial



At the end of each semester the senior government classes and business law class hold a 5-day mock trial. A member of the class is accused of a crime, usually murder. The prosecution, compiled of competent seniors, establishes the facts of the case. After the defense has had a chance to present its case, the jury retires and reaches a decision. The judge then passes sentence and the trial is over. Court stenographers recorded in shorthand the complete trial and later transcribed the case into a case record for future reference.
The main characters were:
Plaintiff: State of Pa.

Mary Beth Filson

Judy Shoemaker—THE GIRL OF THE YEAR.

Girls' Tea and Fashion Show

Two big events for the girls in the spring are the Senior Girls' Tea and the Fashion Show. The Girls' Tea was the last get-together of the senior girls. And, of course, the Fashion Show showed the many talents of Redbank Valley's home economics department.

Have twelve years really passed?
Is it truly time to say goodbye?

Yes, but it is hard for us to accept the fact that we are leaving Redbank and each other. We are sad but we have many memories to take with us. There have been moments of happiness and of sorrow. We remember . . .

Our class rings
The Clarion football game
The Washington Trip
Our senior banquet
Our prom
And finally graduation.

These are but a few of our memories. Most of all, we will remember growing and watching and helping each other to grow. In twelve years, along with our academic education, we have also learned to know victory and defeat, happiness and sorrow, love and hate; and above all, we have learned to know each other.

Now it is time for us to leave; to say thank you to everyone here at Redbank who has helped us to grow and to become what we are and to wish the underclassmen all the happiness and fun we have had.

For us, tomorrow will be a chance to prove true the words sung by Mama Cass:

There's a new world comin' and it's just around the bend.
There's a new world comin',
this one's comin' to an end.
There's a new world comin', the one we've had visions of.
Comin' in PEACE, comin' in JOY,
Comin' in LOVE.

An Egyptian tomb was the center of humor and death as twelve talented members of the Class of '72 became involved in "The Haunted Honeymoon." On December 11, the insane Sir Iso (alias Osiris, God of Death) trapped the eleven unsuspecting Scorpios in order to carry out their gruesome executions. But, after two deaths, the tables were turned and the Class of '72, under the capable directing of Mrs. Helen Mogle and Mrs. Mary Conrad proved itself superior.

HOME-SCHOOL VISITOR

MISS JEAN DIBBS, California State College, B.S., Visitor.

T. G.

To T. G.

Go into her office, and you will see
Blue books and folders and T.G. at ease,
Filing cabinets against the wall,
Air conditioning clear out to the hall,
Reading levels and telephone,
A student whose average she can't condone,
College brochures and schedules, too,
Lists of grades and each I.Q.,
Cumulative records and college boards,
(Pencils in a drawer she hoards).
Mathematical figures you will see
'Cause she picks the Honor Society;
School Evaluation forms lie thick
As she lends a hand to Joe and Dick;
T. G. notes are three feet high
(She writes them so fast her fingers fly).
What does she write? Here are a few
(You'll know if they ever were sent out to you)—

"You're getting a new girl; her brains can't be beat;
The first thing you must do is find her a seat.
I put her in your room although you'll be sore
'Cause her presence will make your class now 34."

"This kid has dropped typing; he said it was dumb.
We'll put him in chemistry—then he'll have fun!"

"Your study hall seating needs some arranging.
With these 50 new kids now you must do some changing."

"Please change on your pica 10 this entry some more
From E1 to R6 to a W4.
His excuse that was unexcused isn't unlawful.
(By the way, your state register looks simply awful!)"

"This boy is in your study hall starting on Monday
But delete him from seating charts all but that one day.
Tuesday he practices his trombone;
Wednesday he works out on the mats all alone;
Thursday you might have him, so keep it in mind
If ever this student we might try to find."

"This girl will be quitting so get all her books;
She's not much in I.Q. but has the good looks.
Don't think that you failed her—please don't be worried;
She's leaving because she wants to get married!"

We've kidded you, T.G.,
But we want you to know
We'll miss you around here,
So wherever you go,
Remember we thank you
For all your endeavors;
Your influence will be here
With us forever.

The Tough and Tender Troll

On April 13th, under the direction of Mrs. Helen Songer and Mrs. Helen Mogle, the Junior High Dramatics Club presented its annual production in the high school auditorium. This year's play was a comedy-fairytale entitled "The Tough and Tender Troll". The play was presented to the school districts elementary students in the morning and to grade 7 & 8 in the afternoon. The student cast did an excellent job and both performances were enjoyed.

In Appreciation

I would like to thank the Senior class of 1972 for the excellent opportunity to prepare the layout designs, take the pictures, search for pictures in local newspapers and at Carrier Studio not taken by the staff, research and write copy, and type the copy for approximately one-half (70 pages-not including 20 pages of ads) of supposedly their yearbook. "This is our yearbook" was the standard reply received when any suggestions offered by the advisor and other students (underclassmen) were rejected, yet the results of several surveys of the class were generally fruitless concerning their suggestions.

HAVING HAD TO WORK 12 HOURS PER DAY THE TWO WEEKS FOLLOWING THE CLOSE OF SCHOOL (JUNE 5) TO FINISH PREPARING HALF OF THE YEARBOOK MYSELF please direct any criticism (constructive or not) to me, because there is a 50% probability I designed the page or pages you criticize. I will be quite happy to give you my reply in CENSORED language.

Also recognition should be given to several hard working, loyal JUNIORS for helping to finish the great SENIORS yearbook. Our local professional photographer, Mr. Carrier, helped tremendously by printing pictures needed at the last minute.

Thank You Again.

Mr. James C. Long
Yearbook Advisor

Activities

Senior Prom

Lon Gracey, Shelley Miller, Rod Miller, Sherrie Adams, King Gary Spizzirri, Queen Pat Kunselman, Sandy Edwards, Rick Myers, Gwen Kriebel, Steve Burford.

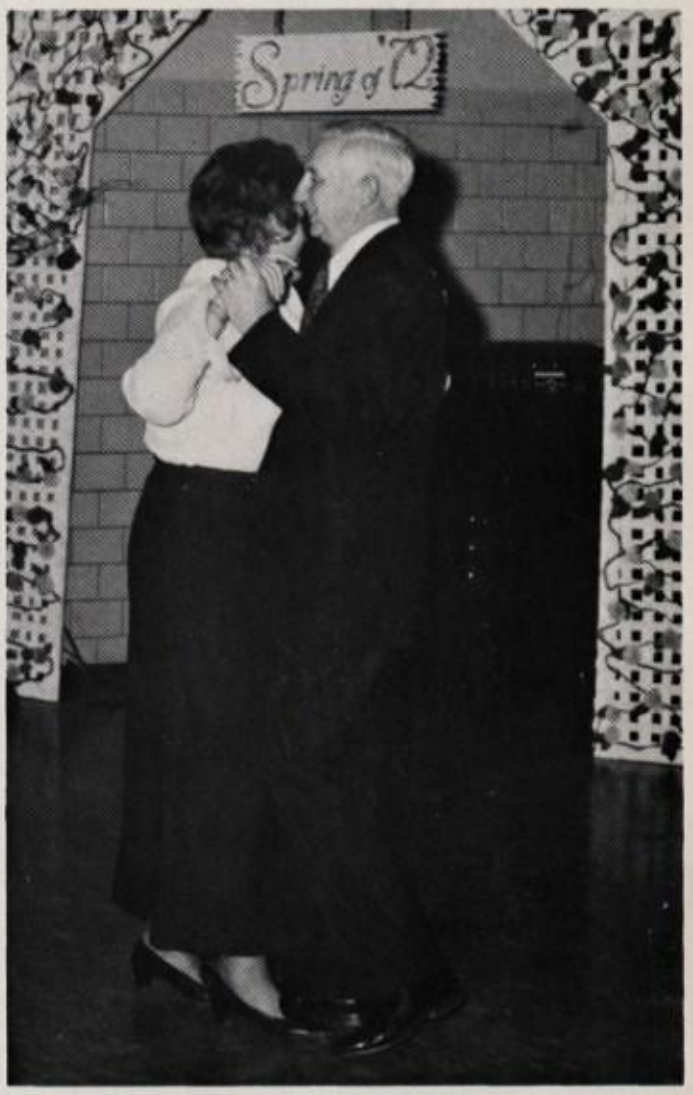
A starry May 5th evening provided the atmosphere for the Senior Prom. With the theme "Spring of '72," our gym took on a romantic garden setting, decorated in varying hues of the class color, purple. From 9:00 to 12:00 the ladies and gentlemen of the Senior Class danced and dreamed to the enchanting music of "The Ivy Walls." They then let loose at the after-prom, held at the Catholic Hall, where the parents, a hypnotist, and the rock group "Colours" supplied entertainment until the rising of the sun signaled the end of a perfect night.

Mr. and Mrs. Von Copenhaver.

Refreshments were served by the junior attendants and their dates.

Two couples per table provided more enjoyable conversation for the evening.

As the band played on . . .



Dancing was enjoyed by all.

Our prom came to an end at midnight.

Foreign Exchange Students

Margaret Frederick lived with the Enrique Falckenheiner family in Lima, Peru from June 16, 1971 to September 2, 1971. During her stay Margaret learned to like the food, was impressed with Kuzco, the home of Inca Indian ruins, and liked to bargain with the Indians at their markets.

Dorthea "Dorka" Hidas from Sao Paulo, Brazil, came to live with the Frederick family from February 7, 1972, to March 14, 1972. Dorka liked the snow which she had never seen before, and hated to leave Redbank which she liked very much.

Jennie Becerra

Jennie Becerra and Penny Pence

Foreign Exchange Students

Penny Pence spent the summer of 1971 in Chile, and on December 5 received Jennie Becerra from Columbia into her home. Jennie's entire trip consisted of nine months in the United States, three of which were spent at Redbank Valley. During her stay at Redbank, Jennie became quite fond of cheesecake pie, pumpkin bread, and ice cream. But her favorite thing in Nu Be was New Bethlehem itself and the people who lived there.

1972 Student Council President Campaign and Election

The campaigns and elections are conducted in a democratic manner by having one day campaigns in school by posters, campaign buttons, and hand shaking. In the morning on the following day during first period the student body assembles in the auditorium to hear campaign speeches. Immediately afterwards the students return to their homerooms to vote by secret ballot for the candidate of their choice.

This spring there were two candidates for the large responsibility of the Student Council Presidency. They were Joni Sarakon whose campaign manager was Douglas Tyger and Sandy Rutkowski whose campaign manager was Eve Harmon. The results of the election were close and Joni is our new president.

Sandy Rutkowski (left) looks on as Joni Sarakon (center) is congratulated by Karen Smith (right) as next year's student council president.

On Awards Day, May 18, 1972, Joni takes the oath of office.
